Single Parent Scholarship Application Deadline

Single Parent Scholarship applications for the spring semester are due December 15. The purpose of this is to provide supplemental financial assistance of up to $500 per semester to those single parents who are pursuing a course of instruction that will become their income-earning potential. Scholarships may be used for childcare, rent, utility bills, and car maintenance, as well as the traditional costs of tuition and books.

To qualify for consideration for a Single Parent of IZARD County, an individual must be:

A resident of IZARD County, have earned a high school graduate or equivalent (GED).

A single head of household (single, legally separated, divorced, widowed) with a child or children under the age of eighteen, and have legal custody of the child or children.

A Pell Grant recipient or in the process of obtaining one.

Note: Current applications are encouraged to reapply for the scholarship.

Those interested in applying may pick up an application at Ozarka College, Melbourne, Arkansas or call Karla Rush at (870) 368-7371.
